DETAILS

DESCRIPTION

Well-designed Democracy

A breakfast event looking at how product and behavioural design principles could be used to improve the policy-making process, with the idea of bringing together a mix of product designers, behavioural scientists along with policy-makers/civil servants to investigate the idea of how we can create a 'well-designed democracy'.

The fundamentals of Citizen Space - training session

by Delib

£120 – £144

TICKETS

DESCRIPTION

We're running a mixed group training session at our offices in central Bristol on Thursday 5 July covering the fundamentals of designing and building an excellent online consultation using Citizen Space.

Anyone who uses Citizen Space is invited to attend. This is the first opportunity for individual trainees to book places at a centralised training session, rather than arranging a dedicated session at your organisation's offices.
